[XXVth Year.] THE [No. 1296.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JULY 12, 1770.

LONDON, April 24.

THE Talk at the Court End of the Town, of appointing Sir Jeffery Amherſt Commander in chief of the Forces in North America, is again revived, and many judicious People think it will ſoon take Place, as the Affairs on that Continent are again in the moſt violent Agitation.

April 26. The Miniſtry are now in a very uncommon Dilemma; the News from Boſton has greatly perplexed them; and whilſt the Council is divided with regard to the neceſſary Meaſures to be taken for quelling ſuch an alarming Tumult, the Advices from Paris ſtill more diſturb them, as the French ſeem diſpoſed to avail themſelves of our unhappy Miſunderſtandings at home and abroad, in order to ſtrike ſome very capital Blow againſt us. In the mean Time, they have the Mortification to find, that Mr. Wilkes ſtill maintains his ſo juſtly acquired Popularity; and that, notwithſtanding all the Artifices that have been practiſed, he is now ſworn in, and acts in ſo capital a Character as an Alderman of this opulent City. The Carlton Houſe Junto, who keep a regular Correſpondence with Lord Bute, have tranſmitted to him every Particular relative to the Conduct of the Oppoſition; and we are well aſſured, that Mungo wrote to him on Tueſday, to lay aſide all Thoughts of returning to England for ſome Time, as, in the preſent critical Situation of Affairs, his Appearance here might be dangerous, not only to himſelf, but to all thoſe in Power.

We hear, that in a late important Council, a conſiderable Majority of Members declared in Favour of conciliating Meaſures with the American Colonies, in Conſequence of which, it is ſaid, the Troops from Boſton and the principal Provinces will be called home, the Board of Vice Admiralty diſſolved, and the Tea Act repealed.

Yeſterday Morning a Cabinet Council was held at the Queen's Palace, at which Lord North, both Secretaries of State, the Hon. Sir Edward Hawke, and other great Officers of State aſſiſted. The Subject under Conſideration is ſaid to have been ſome very important Advices received laſt Night by an extraordinary Expreſs from Paris.

Immediately after the riſing of the above Council, an Expreſs was ſent off from St. James's for the Earl of Harcourt, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at Paris.

April 30. There is nothing unuſual in Camps being formed about London during the Summer Seaſon, it was very frequent in the late Reign, and his preſent Majeſty has never failed to review his Troops every Year, ſince his Acceſſion to the Throne.

A Letter from Col. Dalrymple, at Boſton, to a general Officer, his Friend, in England, mentions, that if the Troops had not retired out of the Town of Boſton at the Time they did, the moſt terrible and fatal Conſequences would moſt certainly have happened; as the Inhabitants had reſolutely DETERMINED to riſk their Lives in an Attack upon the Military, in order to revenge the cruel and wanton Maſſacre of their Countrymen.

It is aſſerted that the Soldiers who committed the Maſſacre at Boſton will be given up to the moſt impartial Juſtice.

May 1. It was univerſally regretted on Monday laſt, that the Earl of Chatham did not honour the City with his Preſence. The Populace with wiſhful Eyes were eagerly waiting an Opportunity to give his Lordſhip a freſh Teſtimony of their Eſteem for him.

A certain miniſterial Lord, whoſe Temper was much ruffled at a Speech lately made by the Earl of Chatham in the Houſe of Peers, is greatly chagrined at the Favour lately ſhown that Nobleman from a certain Quarter.

May 3. The Earl of Chatham, it is reported, is preparing a Bill to reſcind every Thing that has been done in a certain Place relative to John Wilkes, Eſq;

It is ſaid ſome capital Reſignations will take Place in a few Days, in Conſequence of the ſpirited Behaviour of a noble Earl, who has declared to all his Friends, that he will not ſtop in his Proceedings, till his Fellow Subjects have been amply redreſſed.

Minutes of the Houſe of Commons, 26th April, 1770.

MR. Trecothick moved for an Addreſs to the King, for a Narrative, and all Accounts received by the Treaſury, &c. relative to the late Diſturbances in Boſton; alſo for Orders and Inſtructions ſent to America ſince the 24th of June laſt.

Mr. Beckford ſeconded the Motion, and reſerved a Right to ſpeak upon the Subject, if others did: Accordingly afterwards, obſerved upon the ill Policy of the American Revenue Laws—and the ill Conduct of Government towards the People there;—they are not ſubject to the People of Great-Britain, but Subjects in common with them.—General Gage's Commiſſion is illegal, and ſuperſedes all Charters in that Country; and placing the military above the civil Power, is Matter that deſerved the immediate Conſideration of Parliament; and he wiſhed to have a Day appointed for an Enquiry into the State of the Colonies.

Lord North was deſirous that the Houſe might have a Narrative of the Diſturbances in America; and that his only Objection to the Motion was, that the Words "All Accounts relative," &c. would expoſe the Names, and might ſubject to ill Treatment the Perſons who had given the Information.

Mr. Edmund Burke acknowledged the Propriety of concealing the Names of thoſe that had wrote, that they ſhould not be expoſed to ſuffer as thoſe had done, where Letters had been laid before the Houſe the laſt Seſſions, and Copies of them procured and forwarded by one Boltum or Bolian.—On the other Hand, he thought that garbled Letters would not afford the Houſe full Information; but upon the whole declared he ſhould be ſatisfied with a Narrative. He ſneered at the Miniſtry for having in the laſt Seſſion needleſsly expoſed the Intelligence of the King's Officers in America, in laying before the Houſe Letters that were not required.—Who aſked for that extraordinary Letter of Governor Bernard's, that recommended a total Alteration of the Conſtitution of the Maſſachuſetts Government?—It was laid upon the Table unaſked for; and the Advice it contained has been too fatally followed, for to that Governor is principally owing the preſent unhappy Situation of your Affairs in America.—To what a wretched Paſs are Affairs brought by the laſt Three Years ſhameful and weak Conduct of Adminiſtration!—Great-Britain, from being revered by all Nations, has ſubmitted to One of her Colonies—Two of her Regiments have made an ignominious Retreat from their Station, and are actual Priſoners of War at Caſtle William, and liable to be ſtarved out by the Boſtonians!—Adminiſtration may probably tell you, that you ſhould adviſe them what Meaſures to purſue with America—I will not give it; let them throw up the Reins of Government which they are unequal to guide, and not wait until they drop out of their Hands through Indolence, or torn from them by Force.

General Macky recommended to the Houſe to be ſatisfied with a Narrative of the Affairs of Boſton, that the King's faithful Officers ſhould not be expoſed and diſcouraged from giving Accounts, as it was their Duty from Time to Time to furniſh to Government.—That expoſing their Letters in the laſt Seſſions was cruel—and if again practiſed would prevent any Intelligence from thence—that already many avoided writing, and that ſuch as did write were exceedingly cautious therein.

Mr. Grenville ſpoke againſt expoſing the Names of the Letter-writers—lamented the unhappy Fate of Affairs in America, which he did not think himſelf chargeable with being the Occaſion of, although he had often been reflected on in that Reſpect: For, ſaid he with regard to the Stamp-Act, the Repeal of which has given Riſe to the untoward Situation of your Affairs in America—I will take upon me to declare, that had I been ſuffered to have continued in Office at that Time, I would have forfeited 100 Lives, if the Act had not gone down in America. I need not again give you my Opinion what your Conduct ſhould be towards that Country; you all know it.

Lord Beauchamp oppoſed the Motion in all Parts; not willing to expoſe thoſe that had wrote; and not judging that garbled Letters and Accounts could give the Houſe due Information.

Col. Barre faulted the Meaſure of ſending Troops, and repreſented the Conduct of Adminiſtration towards America as weak and improper; had he been ſent upon the Command inſtead of Col. Dalrymple, he would have landed the Troops at Caſtle William, then ſent to know the State of the Town, which, if in actual Rebellion, he would have treated as Enemies, but not otherwiſe carried his Men thither. He ſpoke highly of Governor Hutchinſon, and commended the Prudence of Col. Dalrymple in withdrawing the Troops; but at the ſame Time lamented the Diſgrace brought upon Great-Britain, by improperly placing Troops where they had been obliged to retreat from their Poſt in an ignominious Manner, and become Priſoners of War at Caſtle William.

Lord Barrington gave an Account of the Boſton Affair, that the Centinel at the Cuſtom-Houſe was firſt attacked, &c. that he was glad the Troops had retreated from Boſton, being in his Opinion no longer uſeful there, becauſe there was no Magiſtracy that would act with them. That the Government is a Democracy, and all civil Officers choſen by the People; that the Council is a democratical Part of that Democracy; that in his Opinion a royal Council is neceſſary for a more proper Diviſion of Powers of Government.

William Burke faulted the Policy and Conduct of Adminiſtration towards America in the Language of Barre and Burke.

Mr. Dyſon only propoſed an Amendment to Mr. Trecothick's Motion, and deſired to confine it to a Narrative, in ſuch wiſe as to ſave the Names of the Letter-writers.——And that finally obtained.

BOSTON, June 21.

The Reports from London are, that the Duty on Tea will be taken off this Seſſion of Parliament, and the Board of Commiſſioners be removed.——This wants Confirmation.

One of the Mc Maſters was taken in Town laſt Tueſday, and put into a Cart, with a Barrel of Tar and a Bag of Feathers therein; but being greatly frightened, and fainting ſeveral Times, he was ſpared from tarring and feathering, and carted over the Line to Roxbury, from whence he eſcaped. Search was made for another of the Mc Maſters, but he could not be found. A third, who went to Marble-head, was ordered out of that Town; from thence he went to Salem, where he could get no Lodging, and a Signal being there given, he was obliged to quit that Town alſo.

We hear from Brookline, that on Tueſday Night laſt, between 11 and 12 o'Clock, the Windows of the Dwelling-Houſe of Mr. Hulton, one of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, were broke by Perſons unknown.

NEW HAVEN, June 22.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 14, 1770.

It is now abſolutely and finally determined not to repeal the Duty on Tea this Seſſion of Parliament; Alderman Trecothick having previouſly determined a Day for that Purpoſe, in a very ſenſible Speech repreſented to the Houſe the vaſt Importance of the Trade of North America to this Country, the Abſurdity of taxing the Colonies, or wiſhing to draw a Revenue from thence, when they were poſſeſſed of a Monopoly of their Trade, by which they obtained all they had to ſpare, and even more; the Neceſſity of reſtoring Harmony and Quiet to the Two Countries, from the general ill State of Affairs in Europe, as tending towards a War; the Injuſtice of the Stamp Act and the late Revenue Act, the Inſignificancy of the Duty on Tea, the Encouragement it gave to Smuggle; the Neceſſity the late Meaſure had put the Americans under of manufacturing for themſelves, in Prejudice to the Mother Country; the Fallacy of their Dependence upon the preſent brisk Trade to Germany and other Parts, which now found Employ for their Manufacturers, and prevented their Complaints, which would otherwiſe be extremely loud, a Trade which, he ſaid, was in its Nature temporary and precarious muſt ſoon fail, and leave them (if the Colonies ſhould continue their Reſolution not to import) in great Diſtreſs.——He ſtated the Deficiency of the Trade in the laſt Year, though ſeveral of the Colonies had illy obſerved their Agreements, at 700000l. that there were Ten Ships now in the River, whoſe Orders for New-York alone amounted to 300000l. which muſt go out in Ballaſt, if the Duty on Tea was not repealed, and therefore finally moved for Liberty to bring in a Bill for that Purpoſe.——He was ſeconded by the Lord Mayor and ſeveral others, amongſt whom was Lord Beauchamp, Son of Lord Hartford (a perfect Courtier) who it was not expected would have appeared on that Side of the Queſtion.——The Miniſter and his Friends would not enter directly into the Merits of the Queſtion, but inſiſted that they could not in Point of Order, by the Rules of the Houſe, reſume the Conſideration of it again this Seſſion, it having been before moved to add the Article of Tea to the Bill for the Repeal of the other Duties debated, and rejected.

On this Queſtion of Order the Debate chiefly turned, and continued ſeveral Hours.——Finally, upon Lord Clare's Motion for the other Order of the Day, it was carried in the Affirmative by 80 to 52 (the Houſe being very thin) which put an End to Mr. Trecothick's Motion.——Mr. Dowdeſwel, Gen. Conway, the late Solicitor General, Mr. Dunning, Sir George Saville, &c. ſpoke for us, on the Point of Order as well as upon the general Queſtion.——So far as the Miniſtrial Speakers went into the Argument upon the Merits (which was but ſlightly) they reaſoned upon the ill Policy of yielding to the Combinations of the Americans, and the Probability that, if Parliament ſtood firm, thoſe Arguments would come to nothing, and the Trade be opened by the Neceſſities of the People.——Lord North ſaid, "he wiſhed as much as any Man could do, to conciliate the Americans, and to reſtore Harmony to the Two Countries; but he would never be intimidated by the Threats, nor compelled by the Combinations of the Colonies, to make unreaſonable or impolitic Conceſſions to them."

Thus the Matter is fairly brought to Iſſue, whether the Americans have or have not the Reſolution or the Ability to continue and conform to their Agreements, to decline the Trade of this Country. Many here think it impoſſible, and the Miniſtry are of Opinion that it is now a happy Time for them to make the Experiment, while their Trade to other Parts of the World is ſo flouriſhing.—Not that they have any Idea of parting with the Trade of the Colonies; they imagine it will return of its own Accord, and that they ſhall then for ever have done with this Embarraſſment, in their Management of the Colonies, and the Combinations once diſſolved will never be renewed again; or if renewed will give the People of this Country no Apprehenſions.——No Man therefore can be at a Loſs to determine what the Colonies ought to do upon this Occaſion; and as they determine and conduct, ſuch will be their Fate; all depends upon it! The Game (if I may be allowed to uſe the Expreſſion) is in their own Hands, and whether they will play it well or ill depends upon themſelves; but without Union and Firmneſs they can do nothing.——Happy would it have been, had the other Colonies imitated the Firmneſs and Integrity of New-York (who it does not appear here have in any reſpect infringed their Agreements) we ſhould, I think, have ſeen a different Iſſue of this Buſineſs even in this Seſſion.—But let us forbear Cenſure.—It is not too late to repair any Miſcarriages that have happened; and I muſt yet believe, that there is Wiſdom, Virtue, and Patriotiſm enough in that Country, not only to ſave it from Ruin, but to fix its Right upon a firm Baſis.

NEW-YORK, June 28.

We hear, that on Tueſday laſt one Hills, a Stranger, was detected in ſelling, or attempting to ſell, a Quantity of Goods purchaſed in Boſton, Newport, &c. and brought here contrary to the Non-importation Agreement. He delivered up the Goods, which were afterwards depoſited in the Houſe of Mr. Plat. The ſame Night, between One and Two o'Clock, a Number of Perſons in Diſguiſe went to Mr. Plat's Houſe, demanded and obliged him to deliver up the Goods—which they carried to an adjoining vacant Lot, and, kindling a large Fire, committed the whole to the Flames: The Value of the Goods is ſuppoſed to be about 200 l. We hear the Owner has abſconded.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 28.

This Day, the Buſineſs of the General Aſſembly being finiſhed, his Excellency the Governor gave his Aſſent to ſeveral Bills and Reſolves (a Liſt of which will be in our next) and then cloſed the Seſſion with the following Speech:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

IT is with the utmoſt Gratitude I acknowledge the many Marks of Confidence with which I have been honoured by this Aſſembly. To what Extent I may be able to ſerve you Time only can prove; upon my Zeal you may depend, and that it will know no Bounds but what my Duty ſhall impoſe.

As I underſtand that you have gone through the Buſineſs of the Seſſion, and wiſh to return to your ſeveral Counties, I do prorogue you to Thurſday the 25th of October; and you are accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 25th of October next.

ANNAPOLIS, JULY 12.

PROCEEDINGS of the COMMITTEE of INSPECTION in Talbot County, June 26, 1770.

IT appearing to the Committee, upon a ſtrict Enquiry into the ſeveral Importations into Choptank River, during this and the preceding Month, that Matthias Gale, of London, Merchant, hath, knowingly and deliberately, imported a conſiderable Cargo of Goods, Part whereof, amounting to 430 l. Sterling, is contrary to the general Aſſociation entered into by this Province, and in wilful Violation of it: They (together with a Number of the principal Inhabitants at the ſame Time aſſembled) unanimouſly voted,

That ſuch a Step is prejudicial to the Intereſt of this Country, inaſmuch as it has a plain and manifeſt Tendency to introduce Luxury and Extravagance, and to defeat the Means that have been judged moſt effectual for procuring a Redreſs of American Grievances. And

That therefore it is the Opinion of this Committee, and of every Perſon preſent, that Andrew Mein, Agent and Factor of ſaid Matthias Gale, ought to reſhip, by the firſt Conveyance to London, at Mr. Gale's Riſk, ſuch Part of the aforeſaid Cargo as appears to be contrary to the Aſſociation: Or, That in Caſe of Non-compliance, he ſhall be looked upon as an Enemy to the Liberties of his Country, and treated with the Contempt due to ſuch a Character.

At next Meeting, Andrew Mein, after having conſulted Mr. Gale's principal Friends, attended, and did engage to comply with the Opinion of the Committee, and to reſhip the Goods agreeably thereunto.

It appearing alſo to the Committee, that moſt, if not all of the Merchants, had imported ſome few Articles, probably through Miſtake of the Shop-keepers, a little, and indeed but very little, higher than the Prices limitted by the Aſſociation; they unanimouſly voted,

That the ſaid Articles ought to be reſhipped, at the Riſk of the ſeveral Importers, by the firſt Opportunity, to London, and that no Perſon be indulged in the ſmalleſt Violation of the Non-importation Agreement.

To this the Merchants moſt chearfully conſented; preferring, very generouſly, the public Good to their own private Intereſt.

The Committee likewiſe adopted the Northern Reſolves with regard to the Rhode-Iſlanders, and all other falſe and backſliding Brethren.—Fully perſuaded, that all thoſe, who, deaf to the Calls of Honour and Conſcience, can break through their Engagements to their Country, are unfit to be truſted in private Life; they declared they wonld have no Communication or Dealings with any ſuch, but would diſcourage and diſcountenance them to their utmoſt, until, ſenſible of their vicious Selfiſhneſs, they ſhould ceaſe to confine their Views to themſelves alone, and, by joining in the common Cauſe, act the Part of true Friends to America. May their Eyes, and the Eyes of all that are blind to the Honour and Intereſt of their Country, be ſpeedily opened!

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure the Committee obſerve, in the Inhabitants of this County, a commendable and noble Spirit of Oeconomy and Freedom, actuating and animating them to promote Induſtry, zealouſly to maintain their Rights and Liberties, ſteadily to adhere to the Non-importation Agreement, and to treat all ſuch as ſhall either oppoſe, or refuſe to come into it, with the Contempt they deſerve, and as Enemies to their Country.

JOHN GORDON, Chairman.

TO THE PRINTERS.

Prince George's County, July 9, 1770.

AS the Attempts which have been lately made to engroſs the Herring Fiſhery on the River Patowmack, appears to me to be every Way derogatory of a valuable inherent Right, which I think belongs to the People of this Province in general, I requeſt you will, in Support of the Opinion publiſhed in your Paper of the 7th of laſt Month, publiſh the following Abſtracts, taken from the Proceedings of the Late Congreſs at New-York, and from the Votes and Proceedings of the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province; to wit, (from the Proceedings of the Congreſs) "That his Majeſty's leige Subjects in theſe Colonies are entitled to all the inherent Rights and Liberties of his natural born Subjects within the Kingdom of Great-Britain."——(From the Proceedings of the Lower Houſe) "Reſolved unanimouſly, that the firſt Adventurers and Settlers of this Province of Maryland brought with them, and tranſmitted to their Poſterity, and all other his Majeſty's Subjects ſince inhabiting in this Province, all the Liberties, Privileges, Franchiſes and Immunities; that at any Time have been held, enjoyed and poſſeſſed, by the People of Great-Britain."——I think it right to acquaint my Brother Fiſhermen, that I have ſeen the late mighty Performance of the very learned and moſt ſenſible Inhabitant on the Waters of Patowmack (no Doubt he is amphibious), and that I am exceeding proud I have an Opportunity to tell him, by way of Compliment, that he is "a flaming Friend of Liberty," and in ſhort a flaming Writer; you may read his Performance which Way you will, either backwards or forwards, and it is ſtill the ſelf ſame Compoſition, full of confuſed Thoughts, has a Variety of Suppoſitions, and very many, anſwered and unanſwered, inſignificant Queſtions, among which, inſtance his remarkable Query.—For which Reaſon I muſt ſay, I have ſeen a bad Cauſe moſt ſhockingly handled. I ſhould be glad to know of that "wrong-headed Politician," who has undertaken to betray the Rights of the People, by what Divination or Conjuration it was, he has diſcovered that the Friend to Liberty "ſeems to think," that the People of this Province have a Right to do Damage with Impunity? If I can read (forward), that Writer has plainly told us, in the very Words of the Charter, that no notable Damage or Injury ſhall in any wiſe be done to Lord Baltimore or his Aſſigns; therefore ſhall adviſe my Friend in the Waters, when he writes again, to be a little more candid, to avoid ſuch low Inſinuations, and then perhaps he will teach, that Popularity, acquired by ſupporting the Rights of the People, ought at leaſt to be commended; and that the Man who has Right to it ought never to be deſpiſed. I ſhall conclude with aſking that ſelfiſh "worthy Member of Society," whether a Perſon's coming from Great-Britain, to inhabit in this Province, is a Forfeiture of any Right he at any Time before had here, in Conjunction with his Fellow-Subjects there? I am,
